PRIEST'S MESSAGE

KEEP THE FIRE ALIVE!

Dear faithful,

This past month was culminated with the glorious Feast of Pentecost. This is the day in which the Apostles, and those gathered with them, received the grace and strength of the Holy Spirit in the forms of tongues of fire, and gave them the gift of being able to speak in various languages and dialects. Of course, this gift was not given to the Apostles for their own glorification, but so that they could preach and go throughout the entire world to spread the glorious news of Jesus Christ, the God-man and true Victor over death itself, in all languages and to all peoples.

We too, though we may not have received tongues of fire or the ability to speak in all languages, have received grace and strength from on high through our own Baptism and Chrismation. Like the Apostles and the men and women with them, we are called to be the witnesses of Christ and His Church throughout the entire world.

These past two months we celebrated Holy Week & Pascha, as well as the Great Feast of Pentecost, and now we are able to look forward to the blessed feast day of our own Proistamenos, Fr. Peter, on June 29th when we celebrate the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul, followed by the celebration of the Holy Apostles on June 30th. This celebration is always preceded by the lesser known Apostles Fast, which is less strict and varies in length depending on when Pascha falls, beginning the Monday after All Saints Sunday (8 days after Pentecost) and ending on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul.

Unfortunately, this is also the time of year when we tend to see a decline in church attendance as our various group ministries take a summer “break.” But, we are called, each and every one of us, to take this zeal and strength we have received from Pascha and Pentecost, and keep this fire alive in our hearts, and continue to pray together every Sunday of the summer. Fr. Peter and I have been very blessed these past years to see strong numbers of our faithful continue to come for worship during the summer months, and we also love to hear from our families about their visits to other Orthodox churches throughout the country or abroad that they found while on vacation. The Church does not close over the summer! We may seek vacation from our homes or school or from work, but we do not vacate our own calling as baptized disciples and apostles of Christ.

Lastly, we are especially proud here at St. Anthony of our extremely bright and talented young people, and wish to congratulate all of our graduates who have excelled in their studies and are extremely worthy of receiving their due accolades and degrees! As we say in Greek, “Και εις ανώτερά!” or “to an even brighter future!”

To our graduates, I pray you heed the words of St. Paul in his writing in 1 Timothy 4:12 – “Let no one look down on you because you are young, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” All too often we say that young people are the future of the Church, but the truth is that you are the Church NOW. The leadership and voices in the Church are not reserved for “older people” but for YOU. Engage a life in the Church, get involved, let your voice be heard, make an impact... and if you feel as though there is something blocking your way into getting more involved, then bulldoze your way through. The Church loves you, desires you, and needs you, right now.

Faithfully,

Fr. Chris

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

I first want to thank Stephanie Lubian and Fr. Christopher Retelas for helping to bring back our St. Anthony monthly newsletter.

Our 18th Annual St. Anthony Pasadena Golf Classic was a tremendous success. I want to thank our co-chairs, Roberto Crespo and our Tournament Godfather, Jimmy Christodoulelis, along with everyone else who helped this year.

One of the challenging issues we face is helping the homeless. St. Anthony supports efforts to help the homeless in a number of ways. We support various homeless organizations through Philoptochos, our Pasadena Greek Fest and our Souper Bowl Sunday event. This year, in conjunction with Philoptochos, we contributed $7,500 to Friends In Deed, an organization that operates a number of programs, including a food bank, cold weather shelter, women's shelter, and a homeless prevention program. Several Members have brought to our attention that there seems to be an increase in the number of homeless people on our church property. This poses safety concerns for our members. This month, the Parish Council voted to retain a private security company to patrol our grounds to help address this issue.

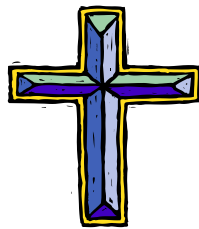

We are thrilled to have 19 St. Anthony members graduating from high school or college this year. Congratulations on this important milestone! May God bless you as you take the next steps in your life journey.

Happy Nameday to Father Peter as we celebrate the Apostles Peter and Paul at the end of this month.

Now that summer is here, we look forward to our Pasadena GreekFest which will be held on our church grounds on September 21, 22, and 23, 2018. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year and we hope everyone will help to make it a great success.

In Christ's Love,

John Vidalakis

Saints of the Month

APOSTLE PETER

Peter was the son of Jonah and the brother of Andrew, the First-called. He was of the Tribe of Simeon from the town of Bethsaida. He was a fisherman and, at first, was called Simon but the Lord was pleased to call him Cephas or Peter: "And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, He said, You are Simon the son of Jonah: you shall be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a rock" (St. John 1:42). He was the first of the disciples to clearly express faith in the Lord Jesus saying: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (St. Matthew 16:16). His love for the Lord was great and his faith in the Lord gradually strengthened. When the Lord was brought to trial, Peter denied Him three times but after only one glance into the face of the Lord, Peter's soul was filled with shame and repentance. After the descent of the Holy Spirit, Peter appears as a fearless and powerful preacher of the Gospel. Following one of his sermons in Jerusalem, three-thousand souls converted to the Faith. He preached the Gospel throughout Palestine and Asia Minor, throughout Illyria and Italy. Peter worked many powerful miracles; he healed the sick, resurrected the dead; the sick were healed even from his shadow. He had a great struggle with Simon the Magician who proclaimed himself as god but in reality Simon was a servant of Satan. Finally, Peter shamed and defeated him. By order of the evil Emperor Nero, Simon's friend, Peter was condemned to death. Installing Linus as Bishop of Rome, counseling and comforting the flock of Christ, Peter proceeded joyfully to his death. Seeing the cross before him, he begged his executioners to crucify him upside down for he considered himself unworthy to die as did his Lord. Thus the great servant of the Great Lord reposed and received the wreath of eternal glory.

APOSTLE PAUL

Paul was born in Tarsus of the tribe of Benjamin. At first, he was called Saul, studied under Gamaliel, was a Pharisee and a persecutor of Christianity. He was miraculously converted to the Christian Faith by the Lord Himself Who appeared to him on the road to Damascus. He was baptized by the Apostle Ananias, was called Paul and numbered in the service of the great apostles. With a fiery zeal, Paul preached the Gospel everywhere from the borders of Arabia to Spain, among the Jews and among the Gentiles. He received the title "Apostle to the Gentiles." As horrible as his sufferings were, so much more was his super human patience. Throughout all the years of his preaching Paul, from day to day, hung as one on a weak thread between life and death. Since he fulfilled all days and nights with labor and suffering for Christ, since he organized the Church in many places and since he attained such a degree of perfection he was able to say: "It is now no longer I that live, but Christ lives in me" (Galatians 2:20). Paul was beheaded in Rome during the reign of Emperor Nero at the same time as the Apostle Peter.

CONFESSING THE CREED

Rev. Father Steven Tsichlis
Saint Paul Greek Orthodox Church – Irvine

Do you know what you believe?

Every Sunday, millions of Orthodox Christians around the world recite the Creed. When we say the Creed, do we realize what a remarkable thing it is that we're doing? Do we realize how different this makes us from the world around us? In a society that celebrates individuality above all else we are doing something together as a community; in an age where the avoidance of commitment has been elevated to a virtue, we are pledging ourselves to a very specific set of convictions and to one another; in a culture that celebrates novelty, we are using words written long ago; in a throwaway, consumerist world we preserve the tradition of the "faith that was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3) for nearly two millennia; in a society where the accepted wisdom changes from minute to minute, we insist that some truths are so critical that they do not change and must be repeated over and over again. Reciting the Creed during the Liturgy is a counter cultural act and goes against the grain of many of the values espoused by contemporary American culture.

The Creed, which is also called the Symbol of Faith, is a brief summary of the essentials of the Christian faith written in the 4th century at the first two ecumenical councils: the Council of Nicea in 325AD and the First Council of Constantinople in 381AD. These councils, attended by bishops from all over the ancient Roman world, were called to clarify the Christian teaching about God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. In the ancient world – like today – many individuals and groups who claimed to be Christian - but were not - taught things about the Lord Jesus at odds with the authentic Christian faith.

The Creed is a summary of how we as Christians view God, the world and ourselves. It is, in fact, a very specific view of the world, a worldview that constitutes the lens through which we are to see everything and the structure by which we frame our thoughts, experiences and ideas. What we believe about the relationship between God and humanity, sin, redemption and forgiveness, good and evil, heaven and hell, as well as our responsibilities in this life, will affect what we do and determine how we live. For an Orthodox Christian to simply say the Creed by rote, without understanding what these words imply for our lives, is to stumble through life as if blindfolded, unable to see reality as it truly is. When we say "I believe" we are affirming that we see things as they really are and that we have a personal responsibility to live the vision contained in the words of the Creed. In the end, we are what we believe.

We believe that our God is the one God revealed in the book of Genesis as the utterly transcendent creator of everything, both visible and invisible – from whales and stars to mountains and grasshoppers, from photons and quarks to black holes and angelic hosts – and that in Jesus Christ we are able to address Him with intimacy as our Father. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah awaited by ancient Israel, the only-begotten and unique Son of God, of the same essence as the Father, being fully divine; and yet, in taking flesh from the Virgin Mary, becoming fully human. We believe that in the Word of God becoming human and being crucified for our salvation, we have been set free from sin; and in His rising from the dead, death has been conquered by God and the possibility of eternal life in His kingdom "that will have no end" is now open to us. We believe that the Holy Spirit is also divine and proceeds only from the Father and is to be worshipped by us together with the Father and the Son. We believe in the Church, the community of believers that the apostle Paul says is the Body of Christ and which the Creed describes as one, holy, catholic and apostolic – as possessing the fullness of faith and open to all; as being rooted in the teaching of the apostles and sent out into the world to proclaim the truth of God's love for the human race. We believe in the necessity of the sacrament of baptism for the forgiveness of our sins and to fully participate in the death and resurrection of Christ (Romans 6:3-11). We believe that Christ will come once again and that the entire human race – both those who are alive and those who are dead – will be under His judgment for how they have lived (Matthew 25:31-46 and Romans 2:6). We look forward to that day when Christ will return in glory and we eagerly await the resurrection of all the dead, and the life of the age to come, that time "which no eye has seen nor ear heard, nor has the human mind even conceived, what God has prepared for those who love Him" (1 Corinthians 2:9).

If we live with this faith as the prism through which we view the world and our lives, we shall become what God has called us to be: His saints, a chosen and holy people and a royal priesthood (1 Peter 2:9) that offers His love and the gift of immortality to a fallen world wrapped in evil and death.
