PRIEST'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

Christ is in our midst!

Pack your bags, get ready, because we're about to go on an amazing, somewhat difficult, but spiritually and physically engaging journey all together. Don't worry, if you're not ready you still have some time to prepare. Of course, that journey I'm talking about is Great Lent and, believe it or not, it is now officially on our horizon. You might be thinking that I'm getting ahead of myself, because you can check the Church calendar and see that Great Lent begins with Clean Monday, March 11th. However, this coming month of February, the Church provides a pre-Lenten period to prepare us for this journey. As Great Lent itself is a time to get ready for the Crucifixion and Resurrection of our Lord, this preparatory season in our Church is called Triodion. Technically, the term Triodion is in reference to a book of hymns for the Church that begins to be used 3 weeks before Lent commences. You can read more about that at orthodoxwiki.org/Lenten\_Triodion. These weeks of preparation are always the same for us.

Beginning with the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee, this marks the beginning of a time of preparation for the spiritual journey of Lent, a time for Orthodox Christians to draw closer to God through worship, prayer, fasting, and acts of charity. The examples of these two men, one a tax-collector who is despised, the other a religious elite who is exalted by the public, show us the importance of repentance and humility in prayer. Our preparation for Lent begins with a prayer for humility - the beginning of true repentance. Through repentance, we can find and return to the true order of things, a restoration of our spiritual vision that will guide us in a very difficult and challenging world.

We then move to the Sunday of the Prodigal Son. A very well-known and beloved biblical parable that further illustrates for us the need for repentance and turning our lives back to our Heavenly Father Who loves us. No matter how far lost the son was, his father was always anticipating and desiring his return. This parable show us an icon of repentance at its different stages. Sin is exile from our homeland, enslavement to strangers and hunger. Repentance is the return to our true home; it is to receive back our inheritance and freedom in the Father's house. To repent is not just to feel dissatisfied, but to make a decision and to act upon it as the Prodigal did.

We always need to seek out our Father's house. I pray that this period in which we begin our journey towards Great and Holy Lent, ultimately leading towards the Victorious Resurrection of our Lord, be one of joy, rejuvenation, contemplation, prayer, and repentance.

To God be the glory!

Fr. Christopher Retelas

Blessing of Homes – 2019

The Feast of the Holy Theophany of our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ, one of the 12 Great Feasts of our Church, is celebrated each year on January 6th, commemorating the Baptism of Christ and divine revelation of the Holy Trinity. The services for this great feast are accompanied and made even more joyful with the Blessing of the Waters, in which Holy Water is distributed to the faithful to use and partake in their homes throughout the coming year. With this same sanctified water, the priest also blesses the homes of the faithful, so that the blessings and protection of our Lord will be with us throughout the year and that our homes may be sanctified with our prayers.

With this tradition in mind, both Fr. Peter and Fr. Christopher will be offering the opportunity to have your homes blessed with the Holy Water of Theophany. This will be offered from January 8th through February 15th.

If you wish to have your home blessed, please complete and return this form or contact the church office at (626) 449-6943.

SAINTS OF THE MONTH

Presentation of our Lord into the Temple

2 February

When the most pure Mother and Ever-Virgin Mary's forty days of purification had been fulfilled, she took her first-born Son to Jerusalem on this, the fortieth day after His birth, that she might present Him in the temple according to the Law of Moses, which teaches that every first-born male child be dedicated to God and also that she might offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons, as required by the Law (Luke 2:22-24; Exodus 13:2; Leviticus 12:6-8). On this same day, a just and devout man, the greatly aged Symeon, was also present in the temple, being guided by the Holy Spirit. For a long time, this man had been awaiting the salvation of God and he had been informed by divine revelation that he would not die until he beheld the Lord's Christ. Thus, when he beheld Him at that time and took Him up into his aged arms, he gave glory to God, singing: "Now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, O Master. . ." And he confessed that he would close his eyes joyfully, since he had seen the Light of Revelation for the nations and the Glory of Israel (Luke 2:25-32). From ancient times, the Holy Church has retained this tradition of the churching of the mother and new-born child on the fortieth day and of the reading of prayers of purification.

Sunday of The Publican And Pharisee

17 February

The Pharisees were an ancient and outstanding sect among the Jews known for their diligent observance of the outward matters of the Law. Although, according to the word of our Lord, they "did all their works to be seen of men" (Matt. 23:5), and were hypocrites, because of the apparent holiness of their lives they were thought by all to be righteous, and separate from others, which is what the name Pharisee means. On the other hand, Publicans, collectors of the royal taxes, committed many injustices and extortions for filthy lucre's sake, and all held them to be sinners and unjust. It was therefore according to common opinion that the Lord Jesus in His parable signified a virtuous person by a Pharisee, and a sinner by a Publican, to teach His disciples the harm of pride and the profit of humble-mindedness.

Since the chief weapon for virtue is humility, and the greatest hindrance to it is pride, the divine Fathers have set these three weeks before the Forty-day Fast as a preparation for the spiritual struggles of virtue. This present week they have called Harbinger, since it declares that the Fast is approaching; and they set humility as the foundation for all our spiritual labors by appointing that the parable of the Publican and the Pharisee be read today, even before the Fast begins, to teach, through the vaunting of the Pharisee, that the foul smoke of self-esteem and the stench of boasting drives away the grace of the Spirit, strips man of all his virtue, and casts him into the pits of Hades; and, through the repentance and contrite prayer of the Publican, that humility confers upon the sinner forgiveness of all his wicked deeds and raises him up to the greatest heights.

All foods are allowed the week that follows this Sunday.

SAINTS OF THE MONTH (CONTINUED)Sunday of the Prodigal Son*24 February

Through this parable, our Saviour has set forth three things for us: the condition of the sinner, the rule of repentance, and the greatness of God's compassion. The divine Fathers have put this reading the week after the parable of the Publican and Pharisee so that, seeing in the person of the Prodigal Son our own wretched condition, inasmuch as we are sunken in sin, far from God and His Mysteries -- we might at last come to our senses and make haste to return to Him by repentance during these holy days of the Fast.

Furthermore, those who have wrought many great iniquities, and have persisted in them for a long time, oftentimes fall into despair, thinking that there can no longer be any forgiveness for them; and so being without hope, they fall every day into the same and even worse iniquities. Therefore, the divine Fathers, that they might root out the passion of despair from the hearts of such people, and rouse them to the deeds of virtue, have set the present parable at the forecourts of the Fast, to show them the surpassing goodness of God's compassion, and to teach them that there is no sin -- no matter how great it may be -- that can overcome at any time His love for man.

Photine, the Samaritan Woman*26 February

Saint Photine was the Samaritan Woman who encountered Christ our Saviour at Jacob's Well, as described in John chapter 4:1-42. Afterwards, she laboured in the spread of the Gospel in various places and finally received the crown of martyrdom in Rome with her two sons and five sisters, during the persecutions under the Emperor Nero.
